TERMS & CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT WITH MakeMyTrip India Private Limited

1. PROFESSIONAL COMMITMENT

1.1. You are required to comply with the rules, regulations and other policies of the Company, which shall be communicated to you upon your joining the Company and subsequently as well. These include policies related to but not limited to non-discrimination, prevention of sexual harassment, code of conduct, confidentiality and non-disclosure, board memberships and insider information. Such rules, regulations and other policies shall be available with the HR department and legal department, and you are expected to keep yourself apprised of the same from time to time. Such rules, regulations and other policies and expectations of your compliance with the same shall always be deemed to be an integral part of the Agreement.

1.2. The Company is obligated to deduct income tax at source as per the provision of Income Tax Act / Rules/ other applicable laws. In the event of non-compliance by you with the aforesaid, consequent to which if the Company is required to pay any interest or payment under any law, the Company shall deduct the amount as may be paid or payable, from your salary or other payments, and you shall allow the company to comply with these requirements without objection.

1.3. Your employment is contingent upon the Company receiving satisfactory references and clean background check results. Please note that in the event of any adverse inputs received through the above checks, the Company shall reserve the right to end this agreement of employment without any liability.

2. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITY

2.1. You shall devote your skill, knowledge and working time to the conscientious performance of your duties and responsibilities towards the Company.

2.2. You shall comply with all directions given to you by your reporting manager/supervisor and shall faithfully observe all the rules, regulations and Company policies. Further, the Company may, at any time, in its sole discretion, suitably modify your roles, responsibilities, duties and location of posting.

3. CONFIDENTIALITY

3.1. You shall not, except as authorized or required by your obligations in terms hereof, reveal to any person or entity any of the trade secrets, secrets, computer hardware and software programs and designs, databases, trading information regarding the Company, its shareholders and related and affiliated entities and clients of the Company, specifications, financial and accounting information, customer and supplier names, correspondence, negotiations and/or contracts with customers and suppliers, market research, performance data and marketing strategies, research and development plans and expenditure, research databases and other information or material that the Company in the future may indicate as confidential, or which may come to your knowledge and/or be imparted to you by the Company during your employment hereunder. You shall hold in strict confidence, all such confidential information.

This restriction shall survive termination of your employment with the Company without limit in point of time but shall cease to apply to information or knowledge which may come into the public domain without any fault on your part.

3.2. You shall not during the term of your employment or at any time thereafter, use or permit to be used, any information, notes or memoranda relating to the business and/or transactions of the Company and/or its affiliates/associates/group companies which may come to your knowledge and/or possession by your employment with the Company for any purpose other than for the benefit of the Company.

3.3. You acknowledge that the breach of any of the provisions of clause 3 hereof will cause irreparable loss and harm to the Company which cannot be reasonably or adequately compensated by damages in an action at law, and accordingly, the Company will be entitled, to injunctive and other equitable relief to prevent or cure any breach or the threatened breach thereof, but no action for any such relief shall be deemed to waive the right of the Company to an action for damages.

4. LEAVE ENTITLEMENT

4.1. Your leave, holidays and other benefits shall be as per the policy (ies) of the Company, framed and modified from time to time and applicable to your location of posting.

4.2. Your absence for a continuous period of five days without, prior approval of your superior (including overstay of leave/training), would automatically terminate your services without any notice or intimation unless the Management communicates in writing to the contrary.

5. TRANSFER & PROBATION PERIOD

5.1 You may be transferred/deputed from one place to another anywhere in India or abroad and/or from one department to another or from one establishment to another and/or to any other concern including to any of Company's affiliates, associates, group companies and/or entities in which the Company may be having any interest whether existing or which may be set up in future.

5.2. Consequent to your transfer, all the existing terms and conditions of your employment shall remain the same. However, employee policies, applicable to the location of the transfer shall be applicable and would come into force on your assuming the charge at the new location/role.

5.3. As per the exigency of business, you may be required to carry out additional work for the Company's affiliates/associates/group companies without any additional payment unless otherwise agreed in writing.

5.4. PROBATION PERIOD

- You understand and agree that the first 3 Months of your employment with the Company, commencing from the date of joining, will constitute a period of probation. During such period, the Company shall have the opportunity to assess the suitability of your performance and conduct.
- Based on the assessment of your performance during the Probation Period, the Company will confirm your employment. Your employment shall be deemed confirmed after successful completion of the Probation Period unless you are informed otherwise.
- In case further evaluation is deemed necessary after the first (3) months, the Company may extend your probation for another period of three (3) months.
- The Company is within its rights to terminate your employment before the completion of the Probation Period in case your performance is found unsatisfactory or on any grounds listed in this Appointment Letter or as per the internal policies of the Company.
- The notice of termination of your employment during the probationary period shall be 2 weeks. Once your employment is confirmed, your separation from the company shall be governed by clause 6 given in succeeding paragraphs. This however, shall not apply for instances of breach provided in the Appointment Letter of as per internal policies of the Company that warrant immediate termination.

6. TERMINATION

6.1. Your employment/services will be governed by the Company's rules and regulations applicable from time to time. If the Company is not satisfied with your performance on any account, the Company reserves the right to terminate your employment with a notice of 2 Months or by paying proportionate gross salary (excluding performance-based variable pay) in lieu of any short notice. This, in no way, limits the Company's right to terminate your employment without notice and without any liability of notice period compensation in the event of serious misconduct which includes, committing a criminal offence, theft, fraud, embezzlement, intoxication, violence, sexual harassment, damage to the Company's reputation etc. The Company also reserves the right to terminate your employment without cause, with a notice of 2 Months or by paying proportionate gross salary (excluding variable) in lieu of any short notice.

6.2. If you wish to terminate your employment with the Company, you shall be required to serve a minimum of 2 Months notice or pay proportionate gross salary (excluding performance-based variable pay) in lieu of any short notice to the Company, subject to management approval on the same. The Company may, however, on its sole discretion, waive off the notice period, in full or in part, without assuming any liability to compensate you in respect of the period so waived.

6.3. On termination of employment you shall immediately:

- Deliver to the Company or as may be directed, all Confidential Information; and
- Return to the Company all equipment, security keys, and other property belonging to the Company.

6.4. You agree that in the event of termination of your employment for any reason, within one year from the date of your Payout of the relocations charges, notice buyout, brokerage or any other costs borne by the Company for you towards additional benefits, you shall be liable to forthwith refund the relocations charges, notice buyout, brokerage or any other costs borne by the Company for you towards additional benefits. You agree that in the event of any default in the said refund, the Company shall be entitled to recover full or part of the said amount as it may deem fit from any salary/bonus/incentives/variable payable to your post-termination, in addition to its rights to proceed with recovery claims against you, if the amount is not fully recovered when due at the cost to be borne by you.

6.5. Any pending performance-based variable pay at the time when you are serving notice period or have exited the Company would be at the discretion of the management.

In case you decide to terminate your services within one year of undertaking any training program, you will be required to reimburse such costs and expenses incurred by the Company in relation to such programs.

MakeMyTrip Foundation

Foundation Established in 2015 as the social responsibility arm of MakeMyTrip Ltd., MakeMyTrip Foundation envisions to be a catalyst for positively impacting destinations, people and the environment by promoting sustainable travel and tourism.

What We DO

The projects we support are around the following 4 pillars of MakeMyTrip Foundation's Charter

- Inspiring Responsible Tourism: The Foundation works to educate and empower travelers and other stakeholders to move towards reusable plastics and sustainable alternatives through awareness activities and projects on waste management.
- Helping Maintain Ecological Balance: The Foundation acknowledges the large carbon footprint associated with travel and undertakes mass plantation activities to create long-lasting carbon sinks for the nation.
- Supporting Local Communities: Tourism has the potential to promote local development and livelihood generation. The Foundation runs community-based tourism projects that act as important drivers for the rural economy and jobs, particularly for youth and women.
- Restoring & Preserving Heritage: The Foundation undertakes restoration efforts in the face of natural and other forms of disasters the nation faces. It also values and upholds the culturally rich heritage our country withholds.
