Event Report

Vivacity | Media Cell x C-CSPD

As the cultural festival, Vivacity, began, LNMIIT students were treated to an exhilarating event named "SPOTLIGHT," which was organised by MEDIA CELL and C-CSPD on February 17, 2023. SPOTLIGHT is a forum where both novice and professional artists may try to present their art/gig in front of an audience, thus giving them a platform to polish and exemplify their abilities.

The chosen individuals delivered with zeal and devotion. Stand-up comedy, musical acts, and poetry were all performed during the event. Every performance was met with applause. Each participant was certainly the greatest and most gifted in their particular skills.

The event was won by singers Manav Verma and Swatantra Jain, who wowed us all with their incredible tunes. Our other winners were Aishnee Porwal and Gurdeep Singh Bedi. Their tremendous talent held us all fascinated and made the night one to remember. Their performances were incredibly hypnotic, reminding us of the tremendous power of the performing arts.

Yet, this event would not have been possible without the passionate support and involvement of the audience, who danced along with each performance, bolstering the artists' confidence and encouraging them to give it their best. The strength of the spoken words moved everyone. Overall, this was an excellent event organised by Media Cell and C-CSPD for both the performers and the viewers.
