RUBAROO, a one-day event for freshers, was a grand success with a variety of activities that kept the audience engaged throughout the day. The event started with a photo booth where freshers clicked pictures and made memories. The lamp lighting ceremony was the highlight of the day, where the Director of the college delivered a speech, highlighting the day's importance and the student's role in the college community.

The event featured some scintillating performances by students in music, drama, and dance. The ramp walk was another attraction, where freshers showcased their fashion sense and walked the ramp with confidence. The nominees for Mr. and Mrs. Fresher were put to the test with a Q&A round, where they answered questions related to their interests, hobbies, and goals.

The Prop Round was a fun-filled activity where freshers had to act out different scenarios using props. The Talent Round was another highlight of the day, where students displayed their unique talents, from singing to playing instruments, and received a lot of applause.

The crown distribution ceremony was the grand finale of the day. The Live Band and DJ Night kept the audience entertained and dancing till the end of the event. Overall, RUBAROO was a day filled with fun, entertainment, and memories for the freshers and the entire college community. The event was a great success, the students thoroughly enjoyed the event. The Counselling and Guidance Cell collaborated with the Cultural Council and after receiving due permission from the competent authority, provided financial sponsorship towards the organization the event.
