Report

On the 26th of March, 2023, the Counseling Cell of The LNM Institute of Information Technology celebrated the successful completion of one year of their tenure. The event was organized by the Counseling Cell and was attended by all its members. The event was an informal gathering where the members had a chance to celebrate their achievements and bond with each other.

The celebration marked the completion of one year of the Counseling Cell's tenure and their year-long efforts in mentoring the junior batches. The members of the Counseling Cell shared their experiences of mentoring the juniors and how it had helped them grow both personally and professionally. They also talked about the challenges they faced during the mentoring program and how they had overcome them.

The Counseling Cell organized several other events and activities throughout the year, such as the teacher's day celebration, the orientation ceremony, and the freshers' party. The members shared their experiences of these events and how they had impacted the students' lives positively.

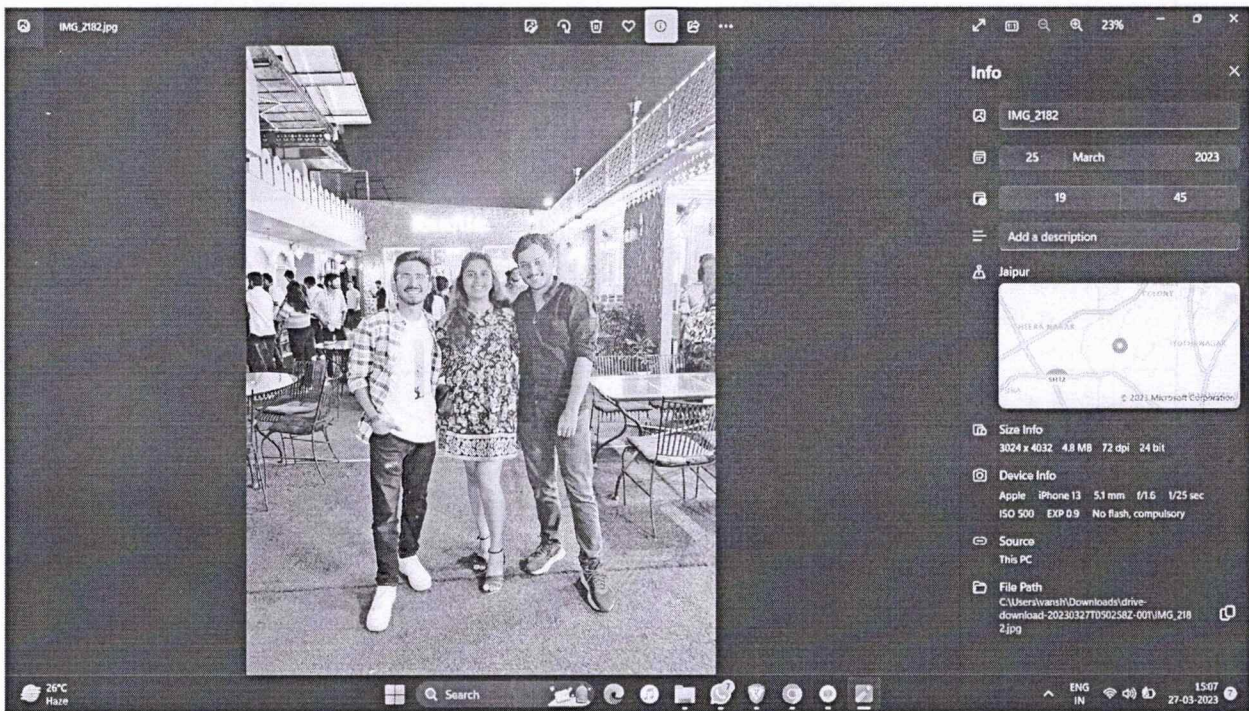

It was a memorable event that highlighted the efforts of the Counseling Cell in supporting the students of the institute. The event brought all the members of the Counseling Cell together and helped them bond and celebrate their achievements.
