	Brief Report: Copy of programme schedule and a brief description of the sessions with abstracts if any could be included	At the inception of the event, we learned about the importance of this National Unity Day in the Indian calendar, why do we celebrate it and what intention does it really serve. As proud Indians, in respect of the ideologies of Sardar Vallabh bhai Patel, we stood up and took the unity pledge together. Moreover, before we called the first speaker we went through the life history of the Iron man of India, his life, from birth to why he is called so. We stressed upon the significance of the terms like unity, integrity and security mentioned in the unity pledge. Proceeding to the participants, they showed great interest, there were highly ecstatic and flawless speakers in the house to kick off the event and making it a great one.
